information on the following points:

Is this a private Shandy?

If so, how long it being held?

Why was no action taken to prohibit it, if it was an unauthorised one?

Who has taken the initiative to have the Shandy brought under the Control of the Dt. Board?

Are there water & shade facilities at the place? If so is the Shandy to be held in the ground on a private land or on govt land.

Which are the nearest Shandies to this place & what are their distances separately there.

With reference to your letter No. L. 10301/L. B. 13-41-60 dated 28th April 1942 calling for certain particulars regarding the opening of a shandy at Alahalli, Kankanhalli Taluk, I have the honour to send herewith the original records connected with the shandy and to state as follows:-

1) This is not a private shandy. It is being held for the past two or three years and was commenced by the initiation of the merchants when the tank work was going on there.

It was a small gathering of shops and was allowed to develop itself before the levy of fees.

The District Board has taken initiative to take the shandy under its control, as it was being held as an unauthorised shandy without levying any fees, - such shandies affect the neighbouring shandies. There is water facility, but there are not many shady trees. They will be got planted.

There are no shandies within a radius of 5 miles- The nearest shandies are held at Satnoor and Kodihalli which are
